Theatre CBS would like to thank everyone who gifted Theatre CBS in honour of Cynthia Gill, a most beloved patron of the arts in CBS.

A Christmas Story by Phillip Grecian is produced by special arrangement with THE DRAMATIC PUBLISHING COMPANY of Woodstock, Illinois.

Director's Note

The play version of A Christmas Story by Philip Grecian is an adaptation of the classic film first released in November 1983. In its 41st year, this film reflecting on life and Christmas in the Midwest seems to be experiencing its own nostalgic revival. Everywhere you look, there are leg lamps and “Oh, Fudge!” shirts and “You’ll shoot your eye out” memorabilia.

As a child of the 1970s myself, I can’t fully relate to Ralphie’s 1940s experience. However, I think what I love most about this movie is that young Ralphie lives in a world of his imagination... to that I can relate! And I love the idea of an older Ralph remembering (and misremembering!) his childhood, like how he remembers his father’s colourful language, but not the words themselves.

Our annual radio drama has become something of a tradition here at Theatre CBS, but this is my first time in the director’s chair. Gord Billard who is stage managing tonight will undoubtedly be back in 2025, but I have very much enjoyed collaborating with him on this show more closely than we have worked on any other show to date. I can’t believe this is only our third birthday! The little community group that can is chugging along nicely and we are very excited about our upcoming fourth season.

Reflecting on 2024, I would use two words – “youth” and “passages.” We’ve used a record number of people under 20 this year. Youth bring excitement and enthusiasm that is infectious, and I am so grateful to our more “seasoned” cast and crew for their warmth and mentoring of our youngest stars.

In terms of passages, our company was deeply saddened by the loss of Tessa Crosbie this year. While many think of her as a “townie” the truth is that Tessa lived more of her life in C.B.S. than anywhere else. She was a force of nature, an artistic giant in this community and she was a supporter of TCBS from day one. I will remember her laughter and wry sense of humour always.

I hope you enjoy A Christmas Story and we look forward to seeing you in 2025.
